1. On his return to Headquarters, [REDACTED] discussed with [REDACTED] both the contents of [REDACTED] communication and the attached corroborating paper signed by the six [REDACTED]. From these discussions, in which other members of the Administrative staff participated, arose a new Project interpretation of the question of leave within the ZI for [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] and succeeding detachments.

2. Basically this policy will provide that one such round trip from overseas to a Port of Entry in the ZI would be permitted each [REDACTED] during the period of his association with KURARK. It was further established that an individual [REDACTED] would not become eligible for such ZI leave until after he had been in service with a detachment overseas for a period of six months. On or after that date he could apply for his ZI leave at the discretion of the commander of his detachment utilizing therefor such leave as he may have accumulated within the terms of his contract.

3. As this affects [REDACTED] he having taken leave at his own expense prior to the initiation of this policy, I believe the following compromise proposals should be offered him:

a. If he wishes the Project to reimburse him for the trip which he has already taken to the ZI from [REDACTED], he will get no further transportation to the ZI from abroad within the balance of his contract.

b. On the other hand, if he should elect to pay for the trip which he has taken, then after he has served overseas continuously for a period of six months, dating from his original arrival abroad, he will become eligible for a paid trip within the terms of the policy I have enunciated above.

I would appreciate it if you would advise us specifically of the disposition of [REDACTED] case so that we may adjust our records accordingly.
